

CONVICTED LABOR LEADERS ARE TAKEN TO FEDERAL PENITENTIARY ABOARD ARMED SPECIAL TRAIN

(By Associated Press)
INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 31.—A special train carrying 33 union labor leaders sentenced to imprisonment on conviction of complicity in the dynamite conspiracy, left here at 12:10 o'clock today over the Pennsylvania railroad for the federal prison at Leavenworth, Kan.

Fifty special guards under Marshal Schmidt accompanied the train, which was composed of two coaches and a baggage car. Sixteen prisoners with guards occupied the first coach and 17 prisoners were in the second. Two prisoners sat in each seat, riding backward and faced by two guards. When they started the doors were locked and were not to be opened until the destination is reached.

Judge Anderson took under advice today the petition for a writ of error filed by the attorneys of the convicted men. He set Thursday morning as the time for further hearing when a prayer for a writ of supersedeas will be filed.

Joseph Schwartz of Chicago, arrested during the trial for talking to a witness, was released from jail today on his own recognizance. The bail was fixed at $1000.

District Attorney Miller recommended the release of Fred Zeiss of Chicago, charged with perjury on the stand. He stated that McManigal will be taken to Los Angeles on January 2 and after the disposal of a plea of guilty there would be returned here for sentence.

May Secure Release
CHICAGO, Dec. 31.—A formal application for a writ to prevent the removal of the convicted labor leaders from Indianapolis to Fort Leavenworth was made today to Judge Seaman of the United States circuit court of appeals. He refused to act saying he would consider the matter at Indianapolis Thursday. This is taken to indicate the men may be released later on bonds.

CONSTABLE-ELECT ANNOUNCES NAMES OF HIS DEPUTIES

C. PECK AND ED WELCH WILL BE NAMED BY CONSTABLE
EVANS

W. B. Evans, constable-elect, who will assume his new duties on January 6, announced today the identity of his two assistants. J. C. Peck has been selected as deputy constable for day duty while Ed. Welch will have charge of the enforcement of law and order during the night. Peck will assume the duties now carried out by Will G. Walker while Welch will succeed Arthur Donahue.

In making his selections Evans declared today that he had fulfilled one of the promises made during the campaign not to consider partisan lines in naming deputies. He declared that he was elected to preserve the peace of this township and he felt it necessary to select the best men available for assistants, and in this wise the choice included one democrat and one republican.

Peck is thoroughly qualified to fill the office of deputy constable as he has had considerable experience in this line. Welch was night watchman for several years during the time Ed Malley occupied the constable's office and he performed his duties in a conscientious manner.

Evans will occupy the office now used by the chief of police, in the rear of the Mizpah hotel. He resigned his position with the Montana Mining company today in preparation to taking up his new and official cares.

SIX INDICTED GAMBLING CHARGE BY GRAND JURY

REPORT IS MADE BY INQUISITO-
RIAL BODY IN DISTRICT COURT TODAY

Indictments against the six alleged gamblers arrested several weeks ago during a raid on the Balkan saloon, were returned this afternoon by the Nye county grand jury, which rendered a report to Judge P. J. Somers of Goldfield, who came to this city this morning to preside in the district court for that purpose. The indictments were of the blanket variety, one document covering the six cases.

The men indicted are Sam Jellich, D. Morris, Geo. Mater, Geo. Paul, H. Wright, H. H. Miller and A. B. McKenzie. The defendants were in the court room and were placed under $500 bonds, which was furnished. Considerable surprise resulted in the jury finding the indictments for it was of common discussion that the evidence against the six was far from sufficient with which to secure a conviction.

In addition to the returning of the indictments the jury rendered a report concerning the general condition of the streets and alleys of Tonopah and other matters relative to public health and protection.

The man who ought to own it will come around and look over your property soon after you commence to advertise in the Bonanza.

DESPITE LACK OF OPERATION BY GOLD MINES THE OUTPUT IS KEPT AT AVERAGE BY TONOPAH MINES

Nevada's mineral production for 1912 compared with the preceding year:

	1912	1911
Gold	$16,500,000	$18,878,864
Copper	9,800,000	8,173,643
Silver	7,337,440	6,739,130
Lead	225,000	214,329
Zinc	173,000	146,182
Total	$34,035,440	$34,152,148

The foregoing is a comparative statement of the mineral production of Nevada, according to the best advance information compiled by John C. Martin of Tonopah for a number of leading eastern publications. For seven years Martin has prepared this statement and his estimates have usually been confirmed by the official report of the U. S. geological survey covering the same period but issued nine months later.

The returns for 1912 show a generous increase in all lines with the exception of gold, which receded to an extent that lowered the production of the yellow metal to a material extent. The decline of the Goldfield Consolidated, whose gross production fell from $735,344 in January, 1912, to $401,000 in October partially accounts for the decrease but, in spite of all conditions this, wonderful gold producer added over $7,000,000 to the wealth of the world during the past 12 months. To offset this impoverishment the Nevada Wonder and Nevada Hills, at Wonder and Fairview respectively, resumed work after a long shut-down owing to a shortage of water in the reservoirs of the Hydro-Electric company and, for nine months of the year, these properties have averaged $50,000 each with gold as their chief element. Owing to litigation the output of National suffered and other northern camps yielded less than normal.

On the other hand Nye county contributed more than its regular quota to the gold column. From Tonopah alone it is estimated that $3,418,720 in gold alone was extracted in addition to $6,837,440 in silver. In the first half of the year leasers at Tonopah Gold Mountain maintained regular daily shipments wherein the values were in gold, Round Mountain kept merrily grinding away on gold ores and the new mill at Manhattan gave a decided impetus to that camp. Aside from the rapid physical development of underground Manhattan the year was a period of construction which will bear rich fruit next year.

The gain in copper is directly traceable to the operation of the Gunn-Thompson smelter in the Mason valley, which was blown in last January and which has proven an unqualified success from the outset. In the porphyry belt of White Pine county Nevada Consolidated handled a larger tonnage and the Groux and several minor shippers did better than the preceding year but the aggregate was impaired by the disastrous strike which cost the Ely district a full month's reduction. New shippers from Humboldt and Mineral counties helped reduce the loss to the state and the shipments of the Goldfield Consolidated to the Salt Lake smelters, for the first time entered into the calculations of copper statisticians.

The silver column virtually represents the greatness of the production of Tonopah, supplemented by the small yield of the Comstock and the by-product of numerous small mines scattered over the state.

Resumption of operations on the Eureka railroad and the reopening of the large lead propositions of Eureka after a suspension of nearly 13 months, proved the salvation of the lead industry. Lucky Boy, which had been the mainstay of lead mining, was undergoing reorganization and no work was done in the way of shipping ore so the full responsibility was thrust upon the eastern counties. Zinc scarcely held its own but, next year, it is predicted an increased tonnage will be forthcoming from Good Springs, Clark county, where the only producers of the state are situated.

The latest official report of George Otis Smith, director of the United States geological survey, shows the relative standing of the leading mining states to be as follows:

	Gold	Silver	Copper
Colorado	$20,526,500	$4,602,410	$ 1,182,952
California	20,441,400	967,500	5,811,545
Nevada	18,873,700	6,677,600	8,190,818
Alaska	16,271,800	83,100	547,500
Montana	3,720,400	6,632,700	35,950,966
Utah	4,312,700	5,640,800	15,898,553
Idaho	1,055,900*	3,794,600	873,444
Arizona	3,413,200	1,434,000	37,750,818
